Trysome Cares

As the spread of COVID-19 continues, communities are being asked to reduce close contact between people.

This is called social distancing, and it's an important and effective way to slow down the spread of this virus.

Social distancing is an essential way to slow down the spread of COVID-19. And it's important that you follow the social distancing recommendations in your community, whether you're in one of the high-risk groups or not.
